

MATTHEW

said to Him, "See, we have left all and followed You." And He said to them, "Truly I say to you, that in the kingdom of His glory, you who have followed Me, judging the twelve tribes of Israel, brothers or sisters or fathers or mothers in My name's sake, shall receive a hundredfold, for you who are first will be last, and the last first."

/vineyard

It is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire laborers for his vineyard. Now when he had agreed with the laborers for a denarius a day, he sent them into his vineyard. And he went out about the third hour and saw others standing in the market place. And he said to them, "You also go into the vineyard." Again he went out about the sixth hour and the ninth hour, and did the same. Again he went out about the eleventh hour, and said to them, "I will give you whatever is right." So the last came, they supposed that they would receive a denarius less, but he said to them, "Indeed I will give each of you a denarius." And when they had received the denarius, they began to curse him, saying, "You have made us equal to them who have not agreed with me in the morning." And he said to them, "What I wish with my own things is none of your business. So the last will be first, and the first last."

and Resurrection

He took the twelve disciples

And He said to her, "What do you want?" She said to Him, "Grant that these two sons of mine may sit, one on the right hand and the other on the left, in Your kingdom."

But Jesus answered and said, "You do not know what you ask. Are you able to drink the cup that I am about to drink, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?"

They said to Him, "We are able."

22 So He said to them, "You will indeed drink My cup, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with; but to sit on My right hand, and on My left is not Mine to give, but it is for those for whom it is prepared by My Father."

And when the ten heard it, they were greatly displeased with the brothers. But Jesus called them to Himself and said, "You know that the tittle, bind it over them, and say, 'Who are great exercisers of authority among men, and who are they who have the greatest degrees to be feared? You have seen it, that I am not come to send peace, but a sword.'"

And He said to them, "There is a certain master of a vineyard, who had a son whom he loved, and he sent him to his vineyard, saying, 'Send your sons and your young men to the vineyard, and let them bring me the fruits of the vineyard.'

Now when the vineyard-owners heard it, they said, "This is the heir of the master of the vineyard; let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours." So they sent their servants to him, and when they heard that he was a son of David, they came and smote him, and sent him away empty-handed.

Then the master of the vineyard, who was far off, saw it, and he sent his slaves to them, and said, "You are bad men; he who is the son of the master of the vineyard, he will be delivered to you, and you will kill him."

Then the vineyard-owners said, "This is the heir of the master of the vineyard; let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours." So they sent other servants to him, and when they heard that he was a son of David, they came and smote him, and sent him away empty-handed.

Then the vineyard-owners said, "This is the heir of the master of the vineyard; let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours." So they sent other servants to him, and when they heard that he was a son of David, they came and smote him, and sent him away empty-handed.

Then the master of the vineyard, who was far off, saw it, and he sent his slaves to them, and said, "You are bad men; he who is the son of the master of the vineyard, he will be delivered to you, and you will kill him."

The Triumphal Entry

21 Now when they drew near Jerusalem, and came to Bethphage and Bethany, then Jesus sent two disciples, saying to them, "Go into the village over there, and immediately you will find a donkey tied, with her; loose her and bring her to Me; and if anyone says anything to you, say, 'The Lord has need of her.'

Two Blind Men Receive Their Sight

Now as they went out of Jericho, a great multitude followed him. And behold, two blind men sitting by the road, when they saw that Jesus was passing by, cried out, saying, "Have mercy on us, O Lord, Son of David!" Then the multitude warned them that they should be quiet, but they cried out all the more, saying, "Have mercy on us, O Lord, Son of David!" Jesus stood still and called them.
